January 20 - Saturday

Leisure time in the beautiful city of Johannesburg

You are nestled in one of the most exciting and growing areas in South Africa. All of locations are designed to give you the opportunity to experience South Africa and its daily life. These hip locations have everything you want from food to beauty bars as well amazing spots to mingle and engage with the locals.

There are spots to enjoy wine tastings on tap and of course its a haven for coffee lovers, with an array of cafe's to enjoy, including a Starbucks. Here you will get you first experience of what it means to live the "lifestyle" available in South Africa.

January 21 - Sunday

9:00 - South Africa Standard Time Private Tour of the Famous Soweto Township

Private Soweto Township Tour

This tour takes you through the streets of So-we-to (South Western Townships) and its adjoining suburbs. The largest and still fastest growing Township in South Africa. Experience all the turmoil of this city during the “apartheid” years. The early house of Mr. Mandela (which is now the Mandela Family Museum), will be visited, as well as a shebeen (typical tavern) and the Regina Mundi Catholic Church the largest Catholic Cathedral in the Southern Hemisphere (1 600 square meters). Here one of the few Black Madonna’s in the world can be seen. This was also the venue for many illegal meetings in the “old” South Africa.
